

Our Teachers

Omega Private Academy® teachers believe in:

Providing opportunity for growth

Boosting self-confidence

Achieving academic success

Encouraging critical-thinking skills

Communicating directly with parents

Building a stronger community

Omega teachers are nurturing.

Our teachers are compassionate educators who really care about your student's success. They regularly use praise and positive reinforcement.

Omega teachers are educated.

Many Omega teachers have masters' and special education degrees. All must complete our certification program and abide by our teacher handbook.

Omega teachers produce results.

Omega teachers achieve results using individualized instruction. Our students' average school year academic growth is 2.4 years.

Omega teachers are local.

Our teachers live and participate in our community. They believe in the power of a strong education and its value for your student's future.

Omega teachers are dynamic.

Our teachers engage their students and use auditory, visual, and tactile instructional methods to achieve lasting results.

Omega teachers are inspiring.

Omega teachers are role models for your students. They believe in mentoring our youth and leading by example.
