

Our Teachers

Omega Private Academy® teachers believe in:

Providing opportunity for growth

Building student confidence

Achieving academic success

Encouraging critical-thinking skills

Communicating a clear academic plan

Helping to build a stronger community

Omega teachers produce results.

Omega teachers achieve results by providing individualized instruction. Our students' average growth is 2.4 years after completing a school year.

Omega teachers are educated.

Many of our teachers have their master's and special education degrees. All must complete Omega's handbook training and certification.

Omega teachers are nurturing.

Our teachers are compassionate educators who really care about your student's success. They regularly use praise and positive reinforcement.

Omega teachers are local.

Our teachers live and participate in our community. They believe in the power of a strong education and its value for your child's future.

Omega teachers are dynamic.

Our teachers engage their students and use multi-sensory (auditory, visual, and tactile) instructional methods to personalize the educational experience and achieve lasting results.

Omega teachers are inspiring.

Omega teachers are admirable role models. They believe in positive mentoring, leading by example, and helping our students become responsible adults.
